

What external support do you get for your business?

- Starting and running a business is exciting but also challenging and time-consuming.
- Entrepreneurs often feel unsure about how to begin or grow.
- Mentors offer encouragement, a sounding board, and space to share ideas.
- Business coaches turn ideas into practical goals and hold you accountable.
- Coaches help with planning, marketing, finance, and legal considerations.
- They provide objective feedback, resources, and constructive criticism.

